

What Does Imagine Something Bigger Mean to Some of our Fellows?

SIERRA: My name is Sierra and I am an Ann Bancroft Foundation Trailblazer Fellow. I'm proud of myself for being passionate about something and acting on it. If something is pushing you out of your comfort zone, that's a good thing. That's the place where growth happens. Don't pay too close attention to what others think of you. Instead, focus on your goals, and don't let anything stop you. When I imagine something bigger for myself, I feel excited for the future.

ANUSHKA: My name is Anushka and I'm a Trailblazer Fellow with the Ann Bancroft Foundation. My passion in the fields of technology and healthcare makes me dream big. The world is shrinking with rapid change in technology. I think girls and women need to take an active role in developing solutions to protect the environment. Follow your passions and dreams. Do our part, however small it may seem, as it does make a difference. Even if it's just for one person.

BUKUNMI: I'm incredibly proud of my love of learning. I love learning in every aspect of my life. As a student, teenager, daughter, sibling, and friend. I'm excited to learn something new every day. My name is Bukunmi. I plan to use my Ann Bancroft Fellowship Grant to support my college education because my education is very important to me. My advice to my younger self would be to work hard. I would tell young me to take pride in all she does because she's amazing and her future is bright.
